

Basic Adult Sewing

Teacher Andrea Serda - Class Time 2 Hours

This introductory sewing class meets four times for 2 hours each class. Learn how to sew a 14 inch decorative, ruffled throw pillow and the skirt of your choice. You will learn how to pre-treat your fabric, layout and cut pattern pieces, as well as how to neatly sew and finish seams for a finished skirt. In addition to the basic skills also learn how to put in a centered zipper, gather fabric and use a rotary cutter.

Class supply list:

- ½ yard of (solid colored) cotton broadcloth for front and back of pillow
- ¾ yard of complimentary (print or solid) cotton broadcloth for ruffle and appliqué
- Matching spool of thread
- A 14 inch pillow form
- Pins
- Scissors
- Sewing machine and accessories
- 18 inch see-thru ruler
- Disappearing marking pen or tailors chalk
